

The Massive Star Group at the Institute of Physics and Astronomy at Universidad de Valparaíso (IFA/UV) invites to apply to a FONDECYT Postdoctoral Fellowship (Chilean Science Fund Agency) consisting in 2-3 year postdoctoral position with the IFA sponsorship.

We are looking forward to applications in observational and/or theoretical astrophysics of massive stars, in particular, wind of evolved massive stars, B[e] and Be stars.

As an equal opportunity employer the IFA emphatically encourages applications from proposers of all nationalities, underrepresented minorities, and especially those from women. The IFA is located at the Facultad de Ciencias (UV), Valparaíso, Chile, which is accessible via public transportation and sits in a friendly university area.
